

DUBROVNIK WALKING TOUR (2 HRS)

SHORT TOUR DESCRIPTION

„Those who seek paradise on earth”, George Bernard Shaw once wrote, “should come to Dubrovnik”. Today, he might add that Dubrovnik is the place for all those who wish to renew themselves and their faith in human nature.

Upon disembarkation with your guide towards the Old Town Dubrovnik and you'll find yourselves at the beginning of the famous main street - the Stradun. Along the way you'll stop to visit the Dominican Monastery with the finest collection of Renaissance paintings in Dubrovnik. The Cathedral is built over the remains one built in the 12th century, and destroyed in 1667 by a disastrous earthquake. Today its treasure contains one of the finest collections of gold and silver in Europe. Other fine buildings that you'll see from the outside include the Sponza Palace, notable for its columns courtyard with elaborate stone carvings, the Church of Saint Blaise and Onofrio's Fountain.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

- ✓ Old Town Dubrovnik
- ✓ Dominican Monastery & Dubrovnik Renaissance Painting School

TIMETABLE

Timing	Description	Terrain	Stairs	Wheelchair accessible	Toilets
00:00 – 00:15	Drive from hotel to Dubrovnik Old Town	NA	Yes	No	No
00:15 – 02:15	Guided Walking Tour	Flat & Cobblestone	No	Yes	Yes
02:15 – 03:15	Free time in Old Town	Flat & Cobblestone	No	Yes	Yes
03:15 – 03:30	Return transfer to hotel	NA	Yes	No	No

FULL TOUR DESCRIPTION

Spend the day in the city Lord Byron called the "Pearl of the Adriatic." Dubrovnik is regarded as one of the best preserved medieval towns in the world. The entire old city is now a UNESCO World Heritage site. The walking tour of the old town includes the 14th-century Dominican monastery, the town museum, the Rector's Palace, and the main square. Upon arrival to old town continue with your guide into the Old Town and you'll find yourselves at the beginning of the famous main street - the Stradun.

Along the way you'll stop to visit the Dominican Monastery with the finest collection of Renaissance paintings in Dubrovnik. The Cathedral is built over the remains one built in the 12th century, and destroyed in 1667 by a disastrous earthquake. Today its treasure contains one of the finest collections of gold and silver in Europe. Other fine buildings that you'll see from the outside include the Sponza Palace, notable for its columns courtyard with elaborate stone carvings, the Church of Saint Blaise and Onofrio's Fountain.

INCLUSIONS

- ✓ Professional English speaking guide
- ✓ Entrance fees at the Cathedral and Dominican Monastery

IMPORTANT INFO

- ✓ All times are estimated and might vary
- ✓ Bring suitable shoes for walking
- ✓ Your shoulders and knees should be covered.

WALKING INFORMATION

- ✓ Guests must be able to walk approximately 1 mile (approximately 2 kilometres) over even cobblestone surfaces with some steps involved

PRICING

220 kunas per person

- ✓ Minimum 30 pax
- ✓ Above price is in Kuna with all taxes included.